

Please do not revise Wisconsin's current no call list law. As a parent, I am grateful that I no longer receive telemarketer calls. I can't tell you how many times I received calls after 8:30 pm that would wake up my child.

Also, if an individual continuously called a person's home, that would be considered harassment. Why is it different for businesses?